Ian Sadler founded in 2000, the Cathedral Singers of Ontario. Administrative Directors, Ian and Catharine Sadler created the choir to act twice a year as choir-in-residence at a British Cathedral. The 48 voices come from many parts of Ontario and since 2000, the choir has sung at Cathedrals in Edinburgh, Exeter, Wells, Canterbury, Winchester, Salisbury, Gloucester, Norwich, Coventry, Lichfield, Chichester, St. David's, Brecon as well as St. Paul's in London, Notre Dame in Paris and St. Salvator's in Bruges.

Richard Barnes gained his early musical training as a Chorister at Westminster Abbey and a Choral Scholar at King's College, Cambridge, where he graduated with an honours degree in music. He had already obtained his Diploma from the Royal College of Organists before leaving school and was later awarded first prize in their Choir Training Diploma examinations. For some years he was Organist successively at Holy Trinity, Brompton and Dorchester Abbey. He has given recitals and accompanied services and concerts both here, at Westminster Abbey, St Paul's and other cathedrals in England and abroad.

He has also enjoyed a varied career as singer, choral conductor, accompanist and lecturer, being for some years Director of the Renaissance Singers of London and a Professor at the Royal Academy of Music.

Richard settled in Chichester in 1982, as a Music Lecturer at Chichester College, but resigned in 1989 in order to develop his publishing company, Cathedral Music Ltd.

He is much in demand internationally as a continuo player, and since 1995 has been accompanist to the Chichester Singers with whom he has toured all over Europe and whom he has accompanied on their CD.
